

Make Downtown Concord Dazzle this Holiday Season!

Thank you for helping us make Downtown Concord dazzle this holiday season! Your tax-deductible $150 donation to the Historic Concord Preservation Trust will assist us in providing decorations for the entire community to enjoy. To show our appreciation for your donation, you will be recognized on posters on display throughout Downtown Concord during the holiday season, as well as in a full-color advertisement in the Independent Tribune this December. A great way to advertise your business or honor a loved one.

To be a Holiday Decoration Sponsor complete the information on the back of this form and mail this with your check to:

The Mission of the Historic Concord Preservation Trust:

The Historic Concord Preservation Trust (HCPT) is a 501c3 nonprofit organization that supports the revitalization and preservation of the historic integrity of the Downtown Concord Municipal Service District (MSD) through the receipt of funds. These funds may be used for free events that expose the broader community to Downtown Concord, for restoring properties and significant amenities in the MSD, and for visual and cultural improvements to both buildings and objects.
